The US and Afghanistan: canâ€™t win the war, canâ€™t stop it ... â€œA simple win-loss dynamic is the wrong way to think about the war. Americaâ€™s not in Afghanistan to win. Itâ€™s there to hold the line,â€ said Nicholas Grossman, professor of political science at the University of Illinois, writing in National Review.

How I Won the War (1967) - IMDb 'How I Won the War' has to be one of the most original, bizarre and imaginative war films ever made. I first saw it late one night as an impressionable kid and immediately was drawn by its unusual style and narrative. To have the film tinted in several different colours to show the stages of the war was both daring and cool. Did we win the War on Poverty? - aei.org Is the War on Poverty over?
